MCLEAN, VA—Hilton has opened its newest hotel, the dual-branded Hilton Garden Inn Miami Dolphin Mall and Homewood Suites by Hilton Miami Dolphin Mall, bringing a total of 232 new rooms to the city of Miami.

"Our dual-branded Hilton Garden Inn and Homewood Suites hotels serve as a great addition to the thriving area of Miami and continue our expansion in major urban markets," said John Greenleaf, global head, Hilton Garden Inn. "Each brand retains its signature amenities which provides guests a unique opportunity to customize their stay."

At the Hilton Garden Inn, The Pavilion Pantry is open 24 hours. The hotel also offers complimentary WiFi and a 24-hour business center. Each guestroom features a king or two queen beds as well as an in-room "hospitality center" with a mini fridge, microwave oven and a Keurig coffeemaker. The Flamenco Café, Tappas and Grill are open daily for breakfast and dinner.
